

The Herald and News

THE ELECTION.

The returns from Tuesday's elections have come in slowly. The result, however, was a foregone conclusion, and about as little interest has been manifested over the returns as was in evidence during the campaigns.

The Republicans will control the next House. Their majority, however, has been cut down from forty-five to probably twenty-six, the latest returns as we go to press indicating that the Republicans have elected 204 congressmen, and the Democrats 179, with three districts, the 8th Tennessee, and the 1st and 2nd California, still very much in doubt. The Republicans lost two congressmen in California, and for the first time in eight years a Democrat was elected in Iowa. In Maryland the Democrats carried two districts, a gain of two, and in Minnesota one. North Carolina voted the Democratic ticket, State and Federal, solid. In spite of Tom Johnson, the Republicans carried Ohio, by a less majority, however, than in former years. One Republican congressman was elected in Virginia.

The following table, which does not include the three districts named above as in doubt, shows the probable strength of each party in the next House, according to States:

Odell, Republican, has defeated Coler, Democrat, for governor of New York. Odell's majority reaching about 11,000. A much larger Democratic vote was piled up in Greater New York than was given Stanchfield two years ago, but not large enough to overcome the up-State Republican majorities. This shows the disintegration of the fusion vote and places the metropolis again solidly in Democratic ranks.

Are You Going?
Where? Around the world tonight, in record breaking time. Fifty cents pays all necessary expenses; children half-price. Tickets may be purchased today from the young ladies or tonight in Holland.

The young ladies who will serve refreshments are: For Holland, Misses Marguerite Cromer, Sara Rawl, Edna Hipp, Annie Shelly, Vera Houseal and Sadie Goggans; for Japan, Misses Carrie Mayes, Bessie Schumpert, Odalite Johnson, Carolyn Cromer, Maggie Cline, and Julia Paisley; for France, Misses Thyr Schumpert, Hattie Shelly, Ethel Bowers, Helen Smith, Mary Riser and Jessie Summer; for America, Misses Lizzie Dominick, Hattie Hipp, Gena Bradburn, Rosalyn Summer, Marie Reagin and Mazie Dominick; among those who will entertain the travellers in Spain are Misses Sena Riser, Cora Dominick, Mattie Epting and Myrtle Dennis.

What refreshments will be served? As the children say "That's telling," but we have found out this much that in Holland there will be brown bread, sandwiches and Dutch sausages; naturally in Japan tea and sweet wafers; and in America a matter of course ice cream and cake. France is a salad country, and those who expect something there in that line will not be disappointed.

Pretty souvenirs of the trip will be given in Holland and Japan, fortunes will be told in Spain and candy will be on sale in France for those who wish to purchase.

The evening entertainment will begin at seven o'clock in Holland, the residence of Mrs. W. L. Seabrook. Travellers can start at that hour or later through the evening.

A Flour of Quality.
No flour sold in Newberry matches the "Gluten" in purity and quality. The wealth of rich gluten contained in this flour makes sweet, wholesome bread of a nutty flavor. L. W. Cosby, Hayes & McCarty and E. R. Hipp have it.

Chill and Fever Cure.

There's a remedy that, if we were sick with Malaria, Chills, Aue or Fever, we would stake our life on. If it didn't cure us, we'd feel pretty blue. We have seen one bottle of it cure a whole family. We have seen it cure the worst kinds of cases, cases, in which other "chill cures" (so called) had failed utterly. It may not cure you, but if it does not, we will refund your money without a word. Price, 50c. We make it and know that it is perfectly safe for anybody to take.
